

Mr. Baldwin submitted the following order:

Ordered, That the President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal be requested to furnish this House with a detailed statement of the number of persons employed and paid by the Company, the duties, if any, which each of them perform, their residences, the compensation received by each—and the length of time for which they have severally been employed.

Which was read.

The question recurring upon the adoption of the order,

Mr. Koons demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows:
