So the motion to postpone the reading of the report did not prevail.

The report was then read.

Mr. Neal moved that the report be adopted.

Pending the consideration whereof,

Mr. Koons made the point of order, that as the report embodied a resolution, in accordance with the Rules of the House, it should lie over one day.

The Speaker decided that the point was not well taken, that as the Resolution was a part of the Report, it was clearly within the province of the House to act upon, and adopt the Report as a whole, upon the first reading.

Mr. Koons appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The question then being,

"Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the House?"

It was decided in the affirmative,

And the decision of the Chair was sustained.

Mr. Scott moved that the further consideration of the Report be postponed until the minority of the Committee made their Report.
