So the motion to postpone was lost.

Mr. Gill declined to vote, because he did not clearly comprehend the proposition submitted by Mr. Scott, it was too indefinite in its nature, if any specific time had been named by the gentleman when the minority would report, he, Mr. Gill, would then have been enabled to vote understandingly.

Mr. Goldsborough submitted the following order:

Ordered, That the majority and minority Reports of the Committee on Elections be read seriatim to-night, and that said reports be made the order for to-morrow, at 11 o'clock, and privilege question, and that each district be taken up seriatim and disposed of, and that one member of the majority Report, and one of the minority Report, be allowed 20
