

On motion of Mr. Stewart,

The further consideration thereof was postponed, and the memorials referred to the Committee on Elections hereafter to be appointed.

Mr. Smith, of Dorchester, presented the memorial and protest of J. Morrison Harris.

Which,

Upon motion of Mr. Smith, of Dorchester,

Was read for information.

Mr. Naill moved that said memorial and protest be printed on the Journal.

Mr. Stewart rose to a privileged question, and made the point of order.

That the House having already refused to have any printing done except the actual Journal of Daily Proceedings.

It was out of order to move the printing of any additional matter.

Pending which,

Mr. Naill demanded the yeas and nays.

Upon the motion to print as submitted by him.

The demand being sustained.

The yeas and nays were called, and appeared as follows:
