So the motion to adjourn was decided in the negative.

Pending the call of the yeas and nays,

Mr. Donaldson refused to vote, because as a member of the Grand Inquest of the State of Maryland, he is bound to find according to the law and the evidence, but no evidence having been submitted, he will give no verdict.

The question then recurring upon the adoption of the report,

Mr. Stewart demanded the previous question,

The question then being,

“Shall the main question be now put?”

Mr. Naill demanded the yeas and nays,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :
