F. MATTHEWS LANCASTER,
H. CLAY NAILL.

Which was read.

Mr. Loane, Chairman of the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably,

The Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal Section 29, of the Act of 1868, chapter 471, entitled an Act to repeal Article 26, of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to Corporations, and to enact a substitute therefor, and to repeal Section 22, of Article 16, Sections 99 to 103, of the same Article, and Sections 33 to 43, of Article 88, of the Code of Public General Laws, and re-enact the same so as to read as follows, with proposed amendments:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Amend by adding to title:

And to repeal Section 17, of the same Article, and to re-enact the same with amendments:

Section 1, add after the word "re-enacted," to read as follows, at the close of the Section the following, "and that Section 17, of the same Article be, and the same is hereby repealed, amended and re-enacted, so that said Section shall read as follows:

Section 17, class 4. "For the formation of fire, life, marine, accident, cattle, live stock and other Insurance Companies, and all Companies for receiving, weighing, sheltering, feeding and exposing for sale, cattle, sheep and hogs, provided, that such Companies shall have their principal office in this State; and provided, that the yards and scales of every Company for receiving, weighing, sheltering, feeding and exposing for sale, cattle, sheep and hogs, shall be located either within the City of Baltimore, or within a distance of not more than six miles from the limits thereof; and provided further, that all such cattle, sheep and hogs shall be weighed by, and under the supervision of the State Weighmaster, as now provided for by law, such weighing to be done at the yards and scales of such Company."

The proposed amendments were severally read and adopted, and the bill as amended, was read a second time.
