

Dodson,
Lankford,

Hinks,
Naill,

Rawlings,
Donaldson—45.

NEGATIVE—Mr. Atkinson—1.

Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

Mr. Robinson, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported favorably,

The bill entitled an Act to establish a wholesale fish, oyster and produce exchange in Baltimore city, with proposed amendments.

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

“Provided, however, That the money necessary for the purchase of the property required for said Market or Produce Exchange, shall be levied only on the taxable property of such counties as shall accept by a majority vote of their Board of County Commissioners such taxation, which acceptance shall be signified to the Comptroller of the Treasury, on or before the first day of June next, and the Comptroller is hereby authorized to cause the said sum of money to be levied on the taxable property of such accepting counties as aforesaid; and the Commissioners, under this Act, are hereby required to impose such charges upon the citizens of such county as do not accept the taxation under this Act as may seem right and proper.”

Strike out “Market-House” wherever it occurs in the bill and insert “that said Commissioners to be selected from those assenting to the provisions of this bill.”

Which were severally read and rejected.

Mr. Bird, Chairman of the Committee of Conference, to consider the disagreeing votes of the two Houses upon

The bill entitled an Act to repeal and re-enact chapter 279, of the Acts passed at January Session, 1870, entitled an Act to amend the Act of Assembly of 1868, chapter 292, adding an additional Section to Article 51, of the Code of Public General Laws, under the title of “Landlord and Tenant,” by repealing the same, and re-enacting the same as follows,

Submitted the following

REPORT.

The managers on the part of the House of Delegates, appointed on the Committee of Conference, upon the disagreeing vote of the two Houses, upon the House bill No. 161, en-