So the motion prevailed and the enacting clause was stricken out.

Mr. Robinson submitted the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
April 3rd, 1876.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received your message asking the House to recede from certain amendments proposed by your Honorable Body, to House bill No. 65, and asking the appointment of a Committee of Conference thereon.

We have named on the part of the House Messrs. Robinson, Rinehart and Onley.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate returned,

The bill entitled an Act making appropriations for the support of the State Government for the year ending the 31st day of December, 1877.

Endorsed, "Passed by yeas and nays with proposed amendments."

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Insert appropriation to State Vacine Agent for rent of box in Safe Deposit Company, for the use of the Officers of the Treasury Department "one hundred dollars."

Section 1, under title "Schools," strike out the words "four hundred and sixty-nine," and insert "five hundred and twenty-five."

To the Trustee's of the Female High School the sum of two thousand dollars, which shall be in full for any or all amounts that may become due under the provisions of the Act of 1874, chapter 403.

Under title miscellaneous to the Mount Vernon Association, represented in this State by Mrs. Emily L. Harper, as Vice-Regent, one thousand dollars for the purpose of assisting in protecting and preserving the home and burial place of George Washington.
