The Secretary of the Senate returned

The bill entitled an Act to pay Eli Whitney his claim against the State of Maryland.

“Endorsed, “Passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendments.”

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Amend title, add “and to defray the expenses in the contested election cases in the several Legislative Districts of Baltimore city, and of the investigation by the House of Delegates, into the official conduct of the Board of Police Commissioners of Baltimore city.”

Add to this amount, contested election cases of St. Mary's and Calvert counties, first and third Legislature Districts of Baltimore city, “and the Comptroller shall also draw his warrant upon the Treasurer, upon the recommendation of the Chairman of the Committee on Elections of the Senate, for such sums as he may recommend, to pay the expenses growing out of the contested cases from St. Mary's and Calvert counties, and the first and third Legislative Districts of Baltimore city; and also his warrant upon the Treasurer for such sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars, as may be audited and recommended by the Chairman of the Committee on Election, of the House of Delegates, for the expenses growing out of the election contests in the first, second and third Legislative Districts of Baltimore city, and the investigation by said Committee into the official conduct of the Police Commissioners of Baltimore city, provided the same be paid out of the appropriation for legislative expenses.
