Mr. Robinson presented the report of St. John's College. [See Document F.]

Which was read and 500 copies ordered to be printed.

Mr. Cockey presented the petition of Jas. M. Stevens, Sam'l T. Skinner and 200 others, respectfully asking for the passage of a law submitting to the voters of the City of Baltimore, and to the voters of the several counties, the question whether licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage shall be granted or not.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Scott presented the petition of A. D. Grim, Josiah Berch and Benjamin Lutch, and 70 other citizens of Washington county, praying for a law protecting game.

Which was read and referred to the Washington county delegation.

Mr. Lankford presented the petition of John Sterling and others of Crisfield, Somerset county, Md., praying a reduction of the price of license for dredging for oysters.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on the Chesapeake Bay and its Tributaries.

Mr. Constable presented petitions of citizens of Cecil county, praying the passage of a law protecting tho fish in the waters of the county from non residents.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on the Chesapeake Bay and its Tributaries.

Mr. Robinson presented an appeal to the people of Maryland by the Visitors and Governors of St. John's College.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Education.

Mr. Gill presented the memorial of Joseph A. Thomas.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Snowden presented the petition of John T. Rilchue, W. W. Hill, Arthur Tolson, G. W. Duvall, of Geo., and 70 other citizens of the Second Election District of Prince George's county, asking for a division of said district.

Which was read and referred to the Prince George's delegation.

Mr. Rutledge, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred the order submitted by him on the 20th instant, that the Speaker appoint a clerk to the Committee on the Library, reported thereon, with the following proposed amendment: