

1874, respectively, for per diem, attendance, stationery and for other purposes as called for by said order.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

LEVIN WOOLFORD,
Comptroller of the Treasury,

Which were severally read, and

On motion of Mr. Waters, of Dorchester,
Said Report was ordered to be printed, and

On motion of Mr. Stewart,

Was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Naill presented the memorial of Jos. C. Keller and 100 other citizens of Frederick county, praying the repeal of the Act of Assembly of 1874, chapter 439, entrusting the granting of licenses for the sale of liquor, to the Grand Jury, as far as the same relates to said county.

Which was read and referred to the Frederick delegation.

Mr. Robinson presented the petition of James M. Stevens, Sam'l T. Skinner and 200 others, respectfully asking for the passage of a law submitting to the voters of the City of Baltimore, and to the voters of the several Counties, the question whether licenses shall be granted to sell intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Chaisty presented the petition of Daniel R. Brown, asking for the return of money paid in the Treasury.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Claims.

Mr. Loane presented the petition of Sam'l S. Addison, James H. Cook, G. W. McCullough and 269 others of Baltimore city, asking for Local Option.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Also,

The petition of Chauncy Brooks, Gaddes Thrasher, Daniel Holliday, Dan'l Corson and 159 others of Baltimore city, asking for Local Option.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and means.

Also,

The petition of 91 male citizens of Baltimore, for Local Option, and John F. Weishampel, Dr. Henry Hubgeld, S. Charles Carroll and 88 others of Baltimore city, asking for Local Option.