

port of the Commissioners of the Harbor and River Relief Board of the City of Baltimore, reported thereon,

And asked that the Committee be discharged from the further consideration thereof,

And that said Report be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Committee were discharged and the Report so referred.

Mr. Ward, Chairman on the part of the House on the Contingent Fund, placed at the disposal of the Executive,

Submitted the following Report:

REPORT.

To the Honorable Speaker and

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

Your Committee of the Contingent Fund very respectfully beg leave to report, that they have carefully examined the accounts rendered to the Executive Department for incidental expenses, and authorized by law to be paid out of the contingent fund, and find that the bills presented, and vouchers for disbursements of the said fund exactly correspond. The statement herewith presented covers the entire expenditures out of the contingent fund from the 2nd day of March, 1874, to the 7th day of January, 1876, inclusive, and shows an aggregate amount of expenditures of twelve thousand, four hundred and sixty-four dollars and sixty cents, ($12,464.60.) Of which sum two thousand, seven hundred and eleven dollars and thirty-six cents, were paid for necessary repairs at the State House.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. WARD,
F. RULLMAN, JR.,
HOWARD GRIFFITH,
JOHN J. McWILLIAMS,
JACOB RINEHART,
HENRY E. LOANE,
W. H. CURTIS.

Which was read.

Mr. Constable, Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably,

The Joint Resolutions extending the time of the Hon. Richard I. Bowie, Chief Judge of the Sixth Judicial Circuit.

Which were read the second time.
