So the motion to print did not prevail.

Said bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the following Resolution submitted by Mr. Whitelock on the 7th instant.

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary inquire into the expediency of providing by law, for the better protection of the interest of small stockholders in corporations organized under the laws of this State, and to report by bill or otherwise.

Which was adopted,

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the following order, submitted by Mr. Hart on the 7th instant.

Ordered, That the officers of this House receive the same amount of stamps as the officers of the Senate.

The question recurring upon the adoption of the order.

Mr. Gill demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.
