

Your Committee are of opinion that, if it be wise to interfere by legislation at all, whatever is done, should be done by General and not by Local Laws, framed upon the fullest knowledge and maturest deliberation.

Your Committee therefore recommend the appointment of a Joint Committee of the Senate and this House, upon Intemperance, to whom shall be referred, not only the petition heretofore referred to this your Committee, but all like petitions, and everything bearing upon the subject of Intemperance, or any kindred subject, such Committee to have power to report by bill or otherwise.

And this your Committee ask that they may be discharged from the further consideration of the matter heretofore committed to them.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. T. DONALDSON.

JNO. R. CLARK,

H. H. LAMOTTE.
