

works an injury to the State, it is a potent instrument whereby wicked persons are enabled by law to scheme for their own selfish interest. It will pass plain and just General Laws.

It will remedy the defects in the Corporation Act, as directed by Article 3, Section 48, of the Constitution.

It will authorize the Treasurer of the State, with the approval of the Governor, to deposit the State's money in the bank or banks, that will give good security and pay the most for the use of it, as empowered to do by Article 6, Section 3, of the Constitution.

It will exert all the power given by Article 12, of the Constitution in regard to the Board of Public Works.

It re-affirms the sound doctrine that all officers of the State are the Trustees of the people, and as such, strictly accountable for their conduct.
