The question then recurring upon the motion submitted by Mr. Fenton,

It was concurred in.

After an absence of some time, the Sergeant-at-Arms returned and reported that he had notified Messrs. Brooke, Lewis and Rusk, the only absent members he could find in the city, to give their attendance, and that they were now at the bar of the House.

On motion of Mr. Donaldson,

Further proceedings under the call, so far as concerned Messrs. Brooke, Lewis and Rusk, were dispensed with.

Mr. Smith, of Dorchester, moved that all further proceedings under the call be dispensed with.

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion,
