

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Culbreth, Goldsborough and Fitzjarrell.

Mr. Gwynn presented the petition of Charles C. Hill, Joseph K. Roberts and others, asking a repeal of the laws regulating the fees of States' Attorneys in Prince George's county, and some legislation to reduce the cost of public printing and other expenses in said county.

Which was read and referred to the Prince George's delegation.

Mr. Rinehart presented the petition of Thomas Shepherd and 45 other citizens, asking for an Act to incorporate the Unicultown and Linwood Turnpike Company.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Fitzjarrell presented the petition of Wm T. Elliott, Thos. O. Martin and 23 others, protesting against the passage of an Act enabling the Commissioners of the Town of Oxford, to deed to the Board of County School Commissioners of Talbot county, any part of Public Lot, known as Market Place, for the purpose of building a school house thereon.

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Fitzjarrell, Dodson and Riggs.

Mr. Rinehart presented the petition of Wm. Gilleland and 112 others, of Taneytown Grange, praying for a law for protection against tram, s.

Which was read and referred to the Carroll delegation.

Mr. Smith, of Dorchester, presented the petition of George Slocum and other citizens, of Draw Bridge District, in Dorchester county, asking a change in the appointment of Public School Commissioners, and other changes in the General School System of this State.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Education.

Mr. Lambdin presented the petition of Daniel M. Henry, Chas. F. Goldsborough and 300 other citizens of Dorchester county, asking that no change shall be made in the present law regulating fishing in the Great Choptank river.

Which was read and referred to a Select Committee on Fisheries.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,
February 25th, 1876.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We respectfully ask your Honorable Body to return to the Senate for further consideration, the House bill entitled a sup-