

State, but no funds of the State shall be deposited in any public or private bank or other institution, unless their safety is secured in a manner satisfactory to the Governor of the State.

Which was read.

The question then recurring upon its adoption,

Mr. Stewart moved that the consideration of the subject be informally postponed until Tuesday next.

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion,

Mr. Stewart demanded the previous question.

The question then being "shall the main question be now put?"

Mr. Snowden demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows:
