

The bill entitled an Act to protect game and birds in Washington county,

Being upon its second reading,

Mr. Scott submitted the following amendments :

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Strike out all under Section 2, and insert : "Be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to sell or attempt to sell, any pheasants, partridges, wild turkeys, squirrels or rabbits at any season of the year that may have been entrapped or shot in Washington county, under a penalty of ten dollars for each and every offence, nor shall it be lawful for any one to ship or attempt to ship, for the purpose of selling elsewhere, any pheasant, partridge, wild turkey, squirrel or rabbit into another county or State, under a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each and every offence."

Amend Section 4, by inserting between words "in" and "this" in line 2, the "the first Section of."

And in line 2, between words "destroyed" and "shall," insert "or the possession by any Express or Transportation Company of any pheasant, partridge, wild turkey, squirrel or rabbit."

Amend Section 5, line 7, by striking out "ten," and inserting "not less than ten nor more than thirty days."

Which were severally read and adopted,

And the bill, as amended, read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal the Act of 1874, chapter 338, entitled an Act for the Taxation of Dogs in Montgomery county,
