

The question recurring upon the order as amended, it was adopted.

Mr. Clark submitted the following order :

“Whereas, The expenditure of the money of the State is one of the most important features of legislation, and the allowance of extra pay or increased compensation to any officer or employee of the State, is of doubtful propriety under any circumstances; therefore,

“Ordered, That in future, no motion, order or resolution proposing any extra pay or compensation to any officer, or attachee of this House, shall be declared passed, unless upon the call of the yeas and nays, a majority of all the Members elect shall vote in the affirmative.”

The question being upon the adoption of the order,

Mr. Koons demanded the yeas and nays,

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :
