So the motion to indefinitely postpone was adopted.

Mr. Hodges submitted the following

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, The Naval Academy of the United States, as well as the property known as Fort Madison, is situated on the harbor of the City of Annapolis.

And whereas, The entrance to said harbor is materially obstructed, and the navigation of the mouth of the Severn river impeded, to the great detriment and injury of the operations of the Naval School, as well as of the commerce of the State, by the inadequacy of depth of water at the entrance of said harbor.

And whereas, It is estimated that a reasonable outlay of money, for more fully deepening said entrance to the harbor would obviate the difficulties under which said harbor labors to the great advantage of both the Navy of the United States as well as of the commerce of this State; therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Senators and Representatives from the State of Maryland in Congress assembled, be and they are hereby requested to urge upon Congress the appropriation of a sum of money
