So two-thirds of all the Members present having voted in in the affirmative, the motion prevailed,

And said bill was made the order of the day for this P. M.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the next order of the day, being

The bill entitled an Act to provide for the general valuation and assessment of property in this State.

Said bill being upon a second reading,

On motion o' Mr. Stewart,

The further consideration thereof was postponed until the delivery in the House of the Senate bill upon the same subject.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the next order of the day, being

The bill entitled an Act to regulate the publication of the Public General Laws.

Said bill being upon a second reading.

Said bill was then read a second time.

Mr. Rullman moved that the bill be laid on the table.

Mr. Scott moved that the House do now take a recess.

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion,

Mr. Naill demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained.

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :
