

Deeds, appointed by the Executive during the recess of the Legislature:

- May 7, 1874.—Oliver S. White, Commissioner of Deeds at New Haven, vice W. Jackson, who failed to qualify.
- June 4, 1874.—Thos. B. Clifford, Commissioner of Deeds at New York City vice F. T. Higgins, who failed to qualify.
- May 27, 1874.—Chs. Knobelsdorff, Commissioner of Deeds at Chicago vice Simon W. King, declined.
- May 27, 1874.—Geo. D. Flack, Commissioner of Deeds at Wilmington, N. C., vice A. B. Garland, who failed to qualify.
- Aug. 5, 1874.—E. C. Weaver, Commissioner of Deeds at Washington City, D. C., vice C. C. Callan, who failed to qualify.
- Aug. 5, 1874.—Wolfgang Kuffner, Commissioner of Deeds at New York City vice Geo. Fisher, who failed to qualify.
- Sep. 10, 1874.—Joseph S. Perot, Commissioner of Deeds at Philadelphia vice Edwin S. Abbot, who failed to qualify.
- Sep. 24, 1874.—Wm. A. Holman, Commissioner of Deeds at Pittsburg vice J. Morris Harding, who failed to qualify.
- Oct. 14, 1874.—L. Montgomery Bend, Jr., Commissioner of Deeds at Philadelphia vice Charles C. Faulks, who failed to qualify.
- Nov. 11, 1874.—Thos. J. Hunt, Commissioner of Deeds at Philadelphia vice W. D. Comegys, who failed to qualify.
- Dec. 2, 1874.—Frederick A. Boswell, Commissioner of Deeds at Washington, D. C., vice M. C. Callan, who failed to qualify.
- Dec. 22, 1874.—Frederick R. Anderson, Commissioner of Deeds at New York City, vice J. M. Var-num, who failed to qualify.
- Jan. 5, 1875.—Edward Chatten, Commissioner of Deeds at San Francisco, California, vice F. J. Thibault, deceased.
- Jan. 28, 1875.—Ellwood Matlack, Commissioner of Deeds at Philadelphia, vice J. P. Montgomery, who failed to qualify.