Said bill was then sent to the House of Delegates.

On motion by Mr. Walsh, it was Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns, it shall adjourn until to-morrow, Wednesday morning, 10 o'clock.

Mr. Joyce submitted the following:

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, Doubt exists as to the propriety of any person holding office either by appointment or election under the government of Maryland, accepting or using any free pass on any railroad, steamboat, or other vessel or vehicle, either for one year or a fractional part thereof.

AND WHEREAS, It has become the common practice for most, if not all the officers of the State government, including the Chief Executive as well as the members of the General Assembly, to accept and use to their pecuniary and personal benefit, such free passes and free transportation, contrary to good policy, and against the best interests of the general public.

Therefore, Be it Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of these resolutions it shall be unlawful for any person or persons (having authority) to issue free passes or permits for free travel for one year, or the fractional part, to any officer of the State government, as before referred to in the preamble, for use on any railroad, steamboat, or other vehicle used in the public passenger carrying trade, this not, however, to preclude the acceptance of such courtesies by officers of the respective corporations to which they may belong.

And be it further resolved, That the acceptance or use by any officer of the State government as before mentioned, of
