BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
January 19th, 1876.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

This House has referred to the Joint Standing Committee under Section 24, Article III, of the Constitution, the inquiry as to the alleged receipt by the State Treasurer of interest or other consideration from Banks, or other depositories of State money, for placing the same with them on deposit without accounting for such to the State.

This House, therefore, respectfully request the concurrence of your Honorable Body in an instruction to said Committee, that it do proceed at once with said inquiry, with authority, not only to send for books, documents, papers and accounts, and summon and examine on oath, witnesses, but also, to sit
