

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
March 27, 1876.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received the message of your Honorable Body, informing us of your non-concurrence in sundry amendments in the Assessment bill made by this House, and asking this House to recede from the same.

This House respectfully informs your Honorable Body, that it adheres to the said amendments, and asks your Honorable Body to appoint a Committee of Conference.

We have appointed on the part of the House, Messrs. Clark, Robinson and Koons.

By order,
MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read.

Mr. Gorman submitted the following message:

BY THE SENATE,
March 28, 1876.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message asking the appointment of a Committee on Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the Assessment bill, and respectfully concur therein.

We have appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Lloyd, Gorman and Aydelotte.

By order,
AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Lloyd, from the Committee on Finance, (by unanimous consent) submitted the following REPORT.

Your Committee report the resolutions and bills passed by the House of Delegates, in relation to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

In making this report, it is proper to add for the information of the Senate, that your Committee has learned to-day, that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is willing to adjust so much of its present controversy with the State, as relates to the Washington Branch Railroad of said Company, upon the following basis:

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company to be charged with the full amount of the State's proportion of the moneys
