REPORT AND RESOLUTIONS:

Your Committee has considered the memorial of James C. Fenhagan, Esq., contesting the right of J. H. Cooper, Esq., to occupy a seat in your Honorable Body as a Senator from the First Legislative District of the City of Baltimore.

It has also considered the memorial of Edward Adams, Esq., contesting the right of Eugene T. Joyce, Esq., to occupy a seat in your Honorable Body, as a Senator from the Third Legislative District of Baltimore city.

Both of these memorialists show by their memorials that they have respectively given notice to the two gentlemen, now members of this Senate, of their respective intentions to contest the right of the said Senators to the seats which they occupy; and that under the provisions of Article 35, of the Code of Public General Laws, they have been respectively engaged in taking testimony in support of their said notices.
