

Senate for further consideration the House bill entitled an Act, granting to certain soldiers and widows of soliders of the war of 1812, a pension.

By order,

AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Gorman, from Committee on Finance, (by unanimous consent,) reported favorably,

House bill entitled an Act to appropriate a sum of money to pay the claims of Edward Powers, John Murphy & Co., Kelley, Piet & Co., Isaac D. Jones, Daniel Caulk, Wm. J. Read and James S. Franklin.

With the following proposed amendments:

Insert in title "Thomas J. Osborne."

Which was adopted.

Insert at end of Sec. 1, "to T. J. Osborne for balance due for paying cattle pens as per contract $1550, under the opinion of the Attorney General."

Which was adopted.

Insert in title "Isaac M. Denson, John S. Tracy, Charles Stinchcumb and William Kirby."

Which was adopted.

Insert at end of Sec. 1, "to Isaac M. Denson, due for materials furnished by order of the Weighmaster of Live Stock $1,250.20."

"To John S. Tracy for amount due him as per certificate of the Comptroller for taxes paid in error, $16.06."

"To Charles Stinchcumb, policeman, $5.00 for services at Governor Groome's inauguration."

"To Wm. Kirby, policeman, $5.00 for services at Governor Groome's inauguration."

Which were adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then read the second time.

The Senate proceeded again to the consideration of the House bill to approate a sum of money to pay the claims of John T. Wiggins, Daniel Caulk, Henry M. Tirally, Jas. E. Tate, Richard Tydings, John H. Handy, David Leonard, George McLaughlin, Moses W. Cornish, Medairy & Bowers and Wm. T. Markland & Bro.

Which had been ordered to lie over informally.

Mr. Suit withdrew the amendment heretofore submitted by him.
