

erty, real or personal, on such terms or commissions as may be established or approved by the directors of said Company; but no rate of interest to exceed the legal rate of interest per annum, shall be charged or received by said Company in any transaction, and to receive and hold on deposit and in trust estate, real and personal, including the notes, bonds, obligations and accounts of States, and of individuals and of companies, and of corporations, and the same to purchase, collect and adjust and settle, and also to sell and dispose thereof in any market in the United States or elsewhere, as may be agreed on between it and the parties contracting with it. That the said corporation shall also possess and have the power to make insurance for the fidelity of persons holding places of responsibility; it shall be lawful for said Company to sell at public auction or private sale, all property of what kind soever, mentioned or specified in the contract between the Company and other parties after ten days shall have elapsed from the time of the maturity of any obligation under said contract, or immediately upon the discovery of any fraud, misrepresentation or concealment in regard to the ownership, character or any other matter relating to the property mentioned in or effected by said contract; and to reimburse itself out of the avails of such sale for the money due it with interest, storage, cost and charges, and to indemnify itself for any loss it may have sustained by the non-fulfillment of such contract; that the said corporation shall have power to receive and hold on deposit, and in trust and as security, estate real, personal and mixed, including notes, bonds and obligations of States, companies, corporations and individuals, and the same to purchase, collect, adjust, settle, sell and dispose of in any manner upon such terms as may be agreed upon between it and the parties contracting with it; and also shall have power to receive upon deposit, for safe keeping, money, jewelry, plate, stocks, deeds, bonds and valuable property of every kind, upon the terms to be prescribed by the by-laws of the said corporation, and shall have power to make insurance for the fidelity of persons holding places of responsibility and trust; provided, that nothing herein contained shall authorize said company to engage in the business of banking; to deal in exchange, foreign and domestic; to create a fund to be loaned on real or leasehold property for such periods and payments as may be agreed on not exceeding the legal rate of interest, such loans to be subject to all the provisions and to have all the privileges relating to Homestead or Building Associations as now provided by law and the enactments of this Article thereunto in anywise appertaining; the said Company shall have power to receive money on deposit and to loan money on securi-