

On motion by Mr. Stevens,

The rules were suspended so as to give said bill a third reading this day, by yeas and nays as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

|                    |           |
|--------------------|-----------|
| Messrs. President, | Knight,   |
| Bannon,            | Lee,      |
| Brewer,            | Lawrence, |
| Cooper,            | McCulloh, |
| Dennis,            | Mudd,     |
| Freeman,           | Newcomer, |
| Getty,             | Stevens,  |
| Hepbron,           | Steiner,  |
| Humphreys,         | Suit—18.  |

NEGATIVE—None.

Said bill was then read the third time and passed by yeas and nays as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

|                 |             |
|-----------------|-------------|
| Messrs. Bannon, | Knight,     |
| Brewer,         | Lee,        |
| Cooper,         | Lawrence,   |
| Freeman,        | McCulloh,   |
| Getty,          | Mudd,       |
| Hepbron,        | McCulloh,   |
| Humphreys,      | Stevens,    |
| Joyce,          | Steiner—16. |

NEGATIVE—None.

Said bill was then returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Lee submitted the following

REPORT.

To the Honorable the Senate and

House of Delegates of the State of Maryland:

The Joint Committee on Printing respectfully submit the following as their final report, to both Houses of the Legislature. Your Committee, at their first meeting, appointed a Sub-Committee, who, together with the Messenger, were directed to see that the Journal and Documents, were properly and expeditiously printed and distributed. It gives us pleasure to state, that the Printer has shown every disposition to comply fully with his contract. We believe the Documents ordered have been printed, with the exception of the Fishery Report, (which is now in type,) and the completion of the Journal and the Laws. We would further state, that the Senate Journal is completed to March 31st, while that of the House is, but six days behind, which is creditable to the Printer, when we consider, that for the last ten days, the