

tion shall be made under the provisions of this act; and one-third of the cash advanced as premium shall, likewise, under the provisions of this act, be returned to the person or incorporation, their executors, administrators or assigns, who or which may have paid cash as premium in advance—and provided that any person or incorporation hereafter insuring under a mutual policy shall not be entitled to a reduction of their premium note as hereinbefore provided for those now holding mutual policies, but their said premium note, or cash advanced in lieu of premium note, shall always remain the same as originally given, except that the same may be reduced by assessment thereon.

When not entitled.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That section one of the acts passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, chapter five hundred, entitled “A Supplement to the act entitled ‘An Act to incorporate the Mutual Insurance Company of Washington county,’” and theseventh section of the acts passed at January session, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, chapter three hundred and seventy-nine, entitled “An Act to amend an act entitled ‘An Act to incorporate the Mutual Insurance Company of Washington county,’” passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter thirty-seven, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall be submitted to the members of said company for adoption or rejection during the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two, on a day to be designated by the Board of Directors, after three weeks’ public notice thereof shall have been given in two newspapers published in Washington county, Maryland, and if adopted by a majority of votes cast according to the ratio of voting prescribed in the by-laws of said company, it shall take effect and become a law from and after said day.

Submitted to members.

Approved March 21, 1882.