

Bounty—how obtained.

killing hawks or owls to produce the heads of the same before some justice of the peace of said county, and make affidavit that the hawks or owls were killed within the limits of said county, and thereupon the said justice shall give a certificate of the production of the said head or heads before him, and of the said affidavit, and it shall be the duty of the said justice to burn or otherwise destroy the said head or heads so as to prevent a second allowance for the same.

Commissioner to levy.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That upon the production of the said justice's certificate the commissioners of said county shall levy for the use of the party holding and producing the same a sum sufficient to pay the aforesaid bounty.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That any person or persons violating the first section of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace shall pay a fine of five dollars for each partridge or rabbit so shot or taken, and on failure to pay such fine shall be lodged in the county jail for a term of ten days.

Fines—how disposed of.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That the fines collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid by the justice of the peace collecting the same to the County Commissioners, to be by them placed in the hands of the treasurer of the County Game Association, should there be one, and if not into the hands of the treasurer of the "State Game Association," to be used for the increase and protection of game in Kent county.

Inconsistent
acts repealed.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That the act of eighteen hundred and seventy-six, chapter fifty-seven, entitled "An Act for the protection of Partridges, Rabbits," &c., and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved March 21, 1882.