

Give three weeks' notice.

years living in the said neighborhood, and nearer and more convenient to the said school house than to any other, shall have the right to one vote in the selection of such trustees; and that John Dimond, of the said school and election district, be and he is hereby authorized and directed to give at least three weeks' public notice, by written or printed notice, posted in at least six public places in the school district, to the public interested, to meet at the school house on Saturday, the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, or some convenient day thereafter, and then and there select three persons of sobriety and discretion to act as trustees of the said school house until the next election of trustees.

Term of office

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, so elected, shall be and continue in office as trustees for one year from the date of their election, or until successors are elected; and that it shall and may be lawful for the patrons and persons interested, as aforesaid, to assemble annually on the second Saturday of May in each and every year, at the said school house, and then and there select three persons to serve as trustees for the ensuing year.

Approved March 30, 1882.

---

Chapter 125.

AN ACT to repeal section one hundred and ten of article ninety-three of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Testamentary Laws," providing for the protection of Administrators in giving notice to Creditors, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether an administrator, notwithstanding the notice to creditors has expired, can safely pay any claim against the estate and pass his account till the full lapse of twelve months, and opinion and practice in that respect is not uniform in the State; therefore—