

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and ten of article ninety-three of the Code of Public General Laws be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Repealed and re-enacted.

110. No administrator who shall, after the full expiration of the notice herein provided for, have paid away the assets to the discharge of just and legally proven claims, shall be answerable for any claim of which he had no notice; provided, that at least six months before he shall make distribution amongst creditors or persons entitled, he shall have caused to be inserted in so many newspapers as the Orphans' Court shall direct, an advertisement as follows, or fully to the following effect, viz: This is to give notice that the subscriber,, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of county, in Maryland, letters testamentary (or of administration) on the personal estate of, late of, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof legally authenticated, to the subscriber on or before the day of next; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Given under my hand this day of Administrator not answerable.

Form of notice

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this law shall take effect from its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 30, 1882.