

Compel compliance.

neglect to place the name of any such person on the stock books of the said company, according to the provisions of the foregoing section, such person feeling himself or herself aggrieved thereby, shall and may apply to the Circuit Court for Washington county, sitting as a court of equity, to compel a compliance with the provisions of the previous section.

When debarred.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all and any person or persons, who may be entitled to the ownership of any share or shares, or certificates of the capital stock of the said company, who shall or may neglect or refuse to present his or her claim, demand or pretension thereto, according to the provisions of the first section of this act, within the time prescribed, upon notice given as therein provided for, shall be debarred the rights and privileges of stockholders in the capital stock of the said company, and all such original shares standing on the books of the said company shall thereafter be cancelled and treated as of no effect; and all money or moneys now standing upon the books of the said company as dividends, due upon such share or shares as may be cancelled under the provisions of this section, shall immediately after such cancellation be placed to the credit of the general fund of the said company.

Shares cancelled.

Effective.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 17, 1882.