Chapter 126.

AN ACT to repeal section ten of chapter seventy of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, entitled "An Act to define and preserve the Inner Harbor of Cambridge, and Cambridge creek, in Dorchester county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section ten of chapter seventy of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows :

Repealed and re-enacted.

SECTION 10. And be it enacted, That on or before the fourth day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, the County Commissioners of Dorchester county shall appoint some suitable person as harbor master, who may also be the keeper of any draw in any bridge over Cambridge creek, to serve for one year; but nothing herein shall be construed so as to require the said harbor master and keeper of the draw to be one and the same person ; and they shall make a like appointment annually thereafter, the incumbent for each year to hold over until his successor is appointed, and in addition to the duties of harbor master, as prescribed in section nine, he shall order that no steamer shall enter or leave the harbor at a greater speed than five knots per hour, and in this order the harbor shall extend to the outer buoy and include the entire channel dug by artificial means, and any captain or other person in command of a steamer disregarding this order shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before a justice of the peace shall be fined and punished as in section nine of this act. The draw keeper shall appoint one hour in the morning and one hour in the evening, that will the least interfere with the travel over said bridge, to open and close the said draw for boats and vessels to pass through, always keeping Appoint harbor master.

Harbor to extend to outer buoy.

Time to open and close draw