

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person shall take up any stock, such person shall impound the same and shall notify the constable of the district in which said stock was taken, and the said constable shall give the notice, and make the sale, upon the same terms, and in the same manner, as provided in the second section of this act, and the owner shall have the return of the stock on the same conditions as provided in that section. and for making a sale under this section the constable shall be allowed the same commissions now allowed by law for the sale of personal property under execution; this provision for commission not to apply to the sale of stock taken up by the constable himself.

Sale—how made.

Commissions allowed.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said constable thus authorized to make sale of such stock, if not returned to the owner as aforesaid, shall, out of the monies arising from such sale, first pay the person or persons taking up the stock, and the costs, and charges and expenses incurred, and the balance, if any, to the owner or owners of such stock; and should no one claim said balance as owner within sixty days of said sale, the constable shall pay the same to the treasurer of the school fund of Caroline county, to be applied to the benefit of the public schools of said county.

How disposed

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That sections eighty-two, eighty-three, eighty-four and eighty-five of the Public Local Laws of Caroline county, sub-title "Fences," be and the same are hereby repealed so far as they relate to the fifth election district of said county.

How far repealed.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the qualified voters of election district number five (and the registration books and poll books used in said districts at the last general election in Caroline county shall be used to determine the qualification of voters at said special election) are hereby authorized to vote by ballot, on the thirtieth day of May next ensuing, "For the Stock Law," or "Against the Stock Law," and it shall be the duty of the judges of the special election in said district to count the said ballots, and to make returns under their hands and seals to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Caroline county, of the number of votes cast for or against the law.

Ballots—how prepared.