

with proceed to discharge their said duties under this act, and shall continue without unnecessary delay to discharge the same until finally completed; and immediately after the said examiners shall have qualified by taking the oath required of them, the examiners, whose places they are intended to fill, shall have no power to act further, and shall at once account to the examiners hereby appointed for all receipts and disbursements had and made under the act of eighteen hundred and eighty, chapter four hundred and forty-three, and shall pay over to them any and all sums of money by the said examiners collected or received for and not legally expended in the completion of said avenue, and shall also deliver to them all vouchers, plats, profiles or papers of any sort or description, connected with or referring to Edmondson avenue or the construction thereof.

Account to examiners.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That each of said examiners shall be entitled to three dollars for every day of his actual service under the provisions of this act, and they shall keep an accurate itemized account of their receipts and disbursements, and shall deposit a copy of the same with the County Commissioners of Baltimore county at regular intervals of not more than three months, and at such other time or times as the County Commissioners shall from time to time require, and the same shall be subject to the approval and ratification of said County Commissioners.

Compensation

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

Inconsistent
acts repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 30, 1882.