

Have three sureties.

each bond shall have at least three sureties, who shall make oath in due form of law that they are possessed in their own right, over and above all debts or other claims against them, real property equal in value to the amount of their bond; and the Commissioners, before approving said bonds, shall, by causing the records to be searched or otherwise, ascertain the truth of such oath.

Duties of collectors.

SECTION 62. The duties of said collector shall be to collect and pay over to the proper officers all the State and county taxes levied in his district, and to diligently search for, assess at full cash value, and report to the County Commissioners all new or missed property in his district liable to taxation; and at the time of executing the first bond mentioned in the foregoing section, he shall take the following oath before the clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil county: "I,, collector of State and county taxes in the district of Cecil county, do swear that I will well and truly execute the duties imposed upon me by law; that I will collect and pay over promptly all moneys coming into my hands for the State or county; and will not, either directly or indirectly, make any profit by the use thereof in any manner whatever; that I will make diligent search for new or missed property, and justly and impartially value the same."

Oath to be administered.

Compensation allowed.

SECTION 63. The compensation of said collector shall be fixed by the Commissioners at the time of appointment, and for all services rendered shall not exceed four per centum of the whole amount of taxes collected by him.

Collect and account.

SECTION 64. The clerk of the County Commissioners shall collect and account for all such claims as shall be placed in his hands for collection by the said commissioners, the collection of which is not otherwise provided for in this act.

Give public notice.

SECTION 65. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the County Commissioners each year, as soon as the annual levy shall have been made, to give public notice thereof by publication in not more than two newspapers published in Cecil county, once a week for one month; and on or before the first day of August in each year said clerk shall deliver to each collector a copy of the assessment for his district, with a statement of the rates of taxes for said year
