

voters in each of said precincts as is reasonably practicable; each of said precincts to be designated by a number.

How to proceed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in so redistributing existing precincts of, or in adding new precincts to any district or districts in said county, the commissioners shall proceed in such manner and under such rules and regulations, act or acts, as are or were in use for a former distribution of precincts as by law or otherwise in such cases already provided.

Effective.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30, 1882.

•••

Chapter 183.

AN ACT to authorize the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company to extend its road to connect with other roads, and to secure lands for shops, stations and necessary buildings.

Extend road.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, shall have power and authority to extend their road from Hagerstown, in this State, to any point on the boundary line between Maryland and Pennsylvania, in Washington county, and for that purpose may purchase or condemn materials and any land necessary for right of way, stations, shops, engine-houses and other buildings necessary for the operation and management of the road of said company, and may acquire and hold real and personal property, and may have, possess and exercise such other powers and privileges as may be required to fully manage such railroad in all things necessary to carry on the business operations of the same.

Acquire real and personal property.

Rights and powers.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the rights, powers and duties of said company in relation to the mode of constructing its works, purchase and condemnation of lands and materials, and the making of road crossings, shall be the same and exercised in