

Dissatisfied with estimate.

within twenty days after notice of such loss; and in case where persons sustaining loss by fire shall be dissatisfied with the estimate of his loss by the appraisers, on his request made in writing the subject may be submitted to three disinterested persons, one chosen by the directors, one by the person insured who has sustained loss, and the one by the two referees thus chosen; and the report of the three persons thus chosen, or of any two of them, shall be conclusive.

How to proceed.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That upon the reception of the report of the appraisers or referees, the directors shall proceed, in case there shall not be a sufficient sum of money in the treasury to pay the same, to levy such pro rata tax as shall, together with the sum on hand, be equal to the adjudged damages, and the costs of collection; they may employ a collector, if necessary, to collect the money and pay it over to the treasurer within thirty days, and the president shall give to the persons or person insured who may have sustained loss, and whose loss shall have been duly ascertained, an order on the treasurer for the amount adjudged to him, her or them; which said sum of money must be paid within sixty days from the occurrence of the fire, otherwise the said corporation shall be liable for interest thereon.

Bound to pay.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That every member of the said corporation shall be bound to pay for the losses and necessary expenses accruing in and to said corporation, in proportion to his or her deposit note, or taxable property on the books of the company; and suits at law may be maintained in the name of said corporation against any of its members for the collection of said deposit notes, or an assessment thereon, or for any other cause relating to the business of the company; and suits at law may be prosecuted and maintained by any member against said corporation for losses or damages by fire, if payment is withheld more than sixty days after said corporation is duly notified of such losses.

Suits at law.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That if any member of this corporation shall neglect or refuse to pay the interest upon his deposit note, on the day of the annual meeting of the members, as is provided by the sixth section of this act, such member shall
