

guns or other firearms in the possession of such offender or offenders, to be directed to the sheriff, or to any constable of Baltimore county, or other officer authorized to make arrests, or to any citizen of said county; and it shall be the duty of any sheriff, constable or other officer authorized to make arrests, or of any citizen or citizens, upon the receipt of said warrant, to arrest any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act, and to seize any gun, guns or other firearms, being used in violation of any of the provisions of this act, and to bring such offender or offenders before a justice of the peace of said county, or before the Circuit Court for said county, and upon conviction for any of the violations of this act, the said offender or offenders shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine of not less than twenty five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment in the jail of said county for not less than twenty days nor more than forty days, one-half of all such fines to be paid to the informer, and the other half to be paid to the use of the public schools of said county, and the said offender or offenders shall forfeit the gun, guns or other firearms, seized as aforesaid, and the same shall be sold and the proceeds of such sale or sales shall be paid to the use of the public schools of said county; and in case any such offender or offenders shall fail to pay the fine that may be imposed on him or them for violating any of the provisions of this act, the said offender or offenders shall be confined in the jail of Baltimore county for a period not less than twenty days nor more than forty days, or until such fine be paid.

Duty to arrest.

Punished by fine.

Shall be confined in jail.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons, who may feel himself or themselves aggrieved by any judgment rendered by a justice of the peace, under the provisions of this act, shall have the right to appeal to the Circuit Court for the county where the act was committed, upon the condition and subject to all the regulations now provided by the general law regulating appeals from justices of the peace in such cases made and provided.

Right to appeal.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 30, 1882.