

of sheep, hogs, horses or cattle, viz., for every score of sheep, four cents; for every score of hogs, four cents; for every score of horses or cattle, eight cents; for every horse and his rider or led horse, two cents; for every chair or chaise, with one horse and two wheels, four cents; for every chariot, coach, stage, wagon, phaeton or chaise, with one horse and four wheels, five cents; for every chariot, coach, stage, phaeton or chaise, with two horses and four wheels, eight cents; for either of the carriages last mentioned, with four horses, thirteen cents; for every other carriage of pleasure, under whatsoever name it may go, the like sums according to the number of wheels and horses drawing the same; for every cart or wagon whose wheels do not exceed the breadth of four inches, four cents for each horse drawing the same; for every cart or wagon whose wheels shall exceed in breadth four inches, two cents for each horse drawing the same; and in charging all the aforesaid tolls one mule shall be estimated as equal to one horse, and two oxen as equal to one horse, provided, that if any wagon or other carriage with four wheels, the breadth of whose wheels shall not be four inches, shall draw along or over said road with a greater weight than three tons, or whose wheels being over four inches in width, shall draw along or over said road with a greater weight than five tons, the owner or owners of such wagon or other carriage shall forfeit and pay to the said company four times the customary tolls, to be recovered with costs of suit in an action of debt before any justice of the peace having jurisdiction of the case. And, provided further, that said company shall be authorized and empowered to assess annually upon each individual or person habitually using said road between the toll gates thereof and not passing or going through any of said toll gates, such sum and amount of money to be paid quarterly by the person or individual so assessed as shall be just and reasonable for such use of said road, and shall have power to collect the same in like manner as like sums are by law collectable; provided, nevertheless, that no person in passing to or from a funeral, or from one part of his farm to another part thereof, shall be chargeable with tolls.

Tolls.

Tolls.

Assess annually.