

Chapter 212.

AN ACT to incorporate the town of Perryville, Cecil county, Maryland.

Made a body
corporate.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the citizens of the town of Perryville, in Cecil county, shall be, and they are hereby made, a body corporate by the name and style of the "Commissioners of Perryville," and by that name may sue and be sued, may grant, receive and do all other acts as natural persons, and may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which may be broken or altered at pleasure, and shall have perpetual succession.

Taxable limits

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the taxable limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at a point in the centre of the track of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company, at the east end of the abutment of the bridge of said company that crosses the Susquehanna river, and on the east side of said river, and running in an easternly direction in the centre of the north bound track of said company to a point under the west side of the bridge of John Stump, thence in a northwesternly direction by a straight line to a large, flat stone in or on the edge of a small run on the land of the Misses Chamberlain, one hundred and fifty-seven feet in an easternly direction from a very large popular tree that stands on the line between the lands of the said Misses Chamberlain and Doctor Virdin, thence in a westernly direction, with and bounding on said run and on the south side thereof until it empties into the Susquehanna river twenty feet north of the ice houses and wharf of Cochran & Co., thence with and bounding on the Susquehanna river to the place of beginning.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the male citizens of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the town of Perryville one year next preceding the election, and all male citizens of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and upwards who own real estate