

Chapter 216.

AN ACT to repeal sections thirty-one to seventy-three, inclusive, of the Public Local Code, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Cambridge," and all acts amendatory thereto, and to re-enact the following sections in lieu thereof:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections thirty-one to seventy-three, inclusive, of the Public Local Code, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Cambridge," and all acts amendatory thereto, be and the same are hereby repealed, and the following sections enacted in lieu thereof:

Repealed and enacted in lieu

31. The inhabitants of Cambridge, in Dorchester county, are a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Cambridge," and as such shall have perpetual succession, and by that name may sue and be sued, purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which they may alter and break at pleasure.

Body corporate.

32. The corporate limits of Cambridge shall be and are hereby extended so as to be included within the following metes and bounds, courses and distances, to wit: Beginning on the Choptank river, in said county, at a point one hundred and fifty feet distant northwesterly from the centre of "West End avenue," as recently laid out by the "Building and Loan Association of Cambridge, Dorchester county," and running in a parallel line with said avenue to the south side of the county road, known as the "Horns Point" road; then with the south side of said road to the present limits or line of the said town; thence running and binding with said line to the western boundary of said town; thence running and binding with the southern and eastern lines or limits of said town to the foot of Cemetery avenue; thence across the creek and in a parallel line with Maryland avenue to the county road, leading from the avenue last aforesaid to the "Jacktown" road; thence with the lands of W. Wilson Byrn, and binding therewith to the Choptank river,

Corporate limits.

Metes and bounds.