

Forfeiture. pike until such cart, wagon or other carriage of burthen shall be drawn into such fixed or erected scales at or near any such gate or turnpike, and the weight or burthen drawn therein ascertained by weighing; and if the person or persons driving or having care or charge of any such cart, wagon or other carriage of burthen shall refuse to drive such cart, wagon or other carriage of burthen into any such scales for the purpose aforesaid, the person so refusing, or the owner of any such cart or wagon, shall forfeit and pay to the said company any sum not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars, to be recovered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Weight of wagon. SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That no wagon or other carriage with four wheels, the breadth of whose wheels shall not be four inches, shall draw along said road with a greater weight thereon than three tons; that no such wagon or carriage, the breadth of whose wheels shall not be seven inches, shall be drawn along said road with a greater weight thereon than five tons; that no cart or other carriage with two wheels, the same breadth of wheels as the wagons aforesaid, shall be drawn along the said road with more than half the burthen or weight aforesaid; and if any cart, wagon or other carriage of burthen whatsoever shall be drawn along the said road with a greater weight than is hereby allowed, the owner or owners of such carriage, if the excess of burthen shall be three hundred weight or upwards, shall forfeit and pay four times the customary tolls for the use of said company.

Forfeiture.

How estimated. SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That all such carriages as aforesaid, to be drawn by oxen in whole, or partly by horses and partly by oxen, two oxen shall be estimated as equal to one horse in charging all the aforesaid tolls, and every mule as equal to one horse.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons whomsoever riding in or driving any carriage of pleasure, or any cart, wagon or other carriage of burthen, riding or leading any horse, mare or gelding, or driving any hogs, sheep,