

but shall cause all such offenders against the provisions of said fifty-sixth and thirtieth articles of said Code of Public General Laws, except as aforesaid, to be committed or held to bail for trial before the Criminal Court of Baltimore.

SEC. 626 B. In all criminal prosecutions or proceedings which under the provisions of this act may be heard, tried and determined before a justice of the peace sitting at a station-house in the city of Baltimore, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace before whom such case is tried, in the event of the conviction of the accused at the said trial, to impose upon the said accused so convicted the fine, or the fine and punishment prescribed in case of such conviction by the act of Assembly of this State, or by the ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, for the violation of which the accused was so tried. Any person sentenced to the payment of any fine and to the payment of the costs of his or her prosecution, who shall not forthwith pay the said fine and the costs of said prosecution, shall be committed by such justice of the peace to the jail of Baltimore city until such fine and costs are paid, or until the said person shall be discharged from such jail by due course of law.

Impose fine.

Shall commit.

SEC. 626 C. If any person charged with any of the offences hereinbefore referred to in this act shall, when brought before any justice of the peace sitting at a station-house in the city of Baltimore, before the beginning of his actual trial for such offence, pray a jury trial, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace to commit such alleged offender for trial before the Criminal Court of Baltimore, or to hold the said alleged offender to good and sufficient bail to appear for trial before the Criminal Court of Baltimore at its next sitting, and to indorse upon said commitment or recognizance the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution; and such commitment or recognizance so indorsed shall be returned forthwith to the clerk of the said Criminal Court of Baltimore.

Jury trial.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage, and that all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby Effective.