

of said city at a general election for Mayor and members of the City Council, as provided by this act, after twenty days' public notice, or the said City Council may order a special election for this purpose by giving the aforesaid notice, and in the event of a majority of the legal voters assenting thereto, then said sale of real estate may be made.

After public notice.

SECTION THIRTY-SEVEN (XXXVII). And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the treasurer, after first having filed such bond as the council may require, to take charge of all monies, bonds, notes, and all other securities belonging to said city. He shall make a statement of the condition of the finances of said city to the Mayor and City Council whenever called upon to do so. He shall pay out no monies without an order of the City Council, approved by the Mayor.

Duty of treasurer.

SECTION NINETEEN (XIX) A. And be it enacted, after the proceedings required by the preceding section shall have been had, if the said taxes are not then paid, the bailiff shall levy upon any property of the delinquent; and after giving twenty days' notice of the time and place of sale by advertisement in at least one newspaper in the city of Havre de Grace, and if none be published there, then in at least one newspaper published in the county of Harford, and by notice stuck up at the City Hall, he shall then, agreeable to said advertisement and notice, either on the premises or at the door of the city hall of Havre de Grace proceed to sell by public auction the property so levied on for cash to the highest bidder, retaining out of the proceeds of such sales the amount of taxes due from such delinquent with interest thereon, together with all the costs incurred in making the sale and paying the surplus, if there be any, to the owner thereof.

Levy upon property.

Sell by auction

SECTION NINETEEN (XIX) B. And be it enacted, That the real estate of a delinquent tax payer may be sold to pay city taxes, whether there be personal property or not, the bailiff complying with the provisions of the two preceding sections.

Delinquents.

SECTION NINETEEN (XIX).C. And be it enacted, In all cases where lands held in fee simple or by lease shall be sold for payment of taxes in arrears, according to the provisions of the existing laws, it shall be the duty of the bailiff to report the said sale,

Report sale.