

in the constructing of said railroad over and upon the said Light street bridge, iron or steel rails having a flange less than six inches wide shall be used; and the said company shall, at its own cost and expense, construct and keep in repair an extra floor to cover and rest upon the ordinary or usual flooring of said bridge, which said extra floor shall cover the entire space between the rails, and to be raised to the level of the tops of said rails.

Extra floor.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said company be and they are hereby authorized, in the constructing of said railway over the county road aforesaid, to alter the grades of said road, and shall have the power to widen the limits of said road to a width requisite for the purposes of the construction of said railway; and whenever said company shall determine to widen said road, and when it becomes necessary to occupy new grounds for the purposes aforesaid, or for the purpose of erecting the necessary depots, stables and other buildings requisite for the enjoyment and operating of said railway, or to use new materials, and the consent of the owner or owners of said ground or materials cannot be obtained, a jury shall be summoned by the sheriff of Anne Arundel county, upon a warrant of a justice of the peace of Anne Arundel county, for that purpose, to be issued upon the application of said company, to condemn said land and materials, and assess the damage, in which assessment the benefits or advantages, if any, of the widening of said road, and the occupying of said ground, shall be considered by the jury, and the inquisition thereupon taken shall be signed by the sheriff and jury, and be returned by said sheriff to the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county; and unless good cause be shown against said inquisition of the jury, it shall be confirmed by said court at the term next after the return of said inquisition, and be recorded; and upon payment, or tender of payment, of the damages assessed by said inquisition, said company shall proceed to occupy and possess the land so condemned for the purposes aforesaid; but if the said inquisition shall be set aside, the said court may, in its discretion, as often as it may be necessary, direct another or other inquisitions in the manner above described.

Alter grades.

Summon jury.

To be recorded