Building committee.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That Hon Ephraim K. Wilson, George W. Purnell, George T. Brattan, Irving T. Matthews, Christopher C. Lloyd and Daniel C Hudson, be and they are hereby appointed a building committee, who shall act without compensation, and who, or the majority of whom, shall contract for, and superintend such repairs and improvements of said court house as they shall deem necessary or expedient, not to exceed in cost the maximum amount which the said county commissioners are hereby directed to borrow, which improvements shall in part consist of an addition to the rear of the present court-room, and of a second story over the whole of the old court-room so extended, so as to give room for a new court-room in said second story, and of fire-proof vaults adjoining the present clerk's and register's office for the safe keeping of the records of said offices, and of slate roofs over the whole court house; and the said building committee shall have power, by their check or the check of the majority of them, to draw the money so deposited in the bank to their credit out of bank as the same may be needed, and to apply the same to the payment for materials or work in the making of such repairs and additions to said court house; also to sell all old materials not needed in making such improvements, and to apply the proceeds in the prosecution of the work committed to their charge of records.

Vacancy—
how filled.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if the persons hereby appointed upon said building committee, or any one or more of them, should decline to serve, or for any cause any vacancy or vacancies should occur in said committee, the said county commissioners shall have power, by order entered upon their minutes, to appoint a new committee, or to supply any vacancies therein, and such new committee shall have all the power vested in the committee as herein constituted.

Effective.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
